

INSTALLATION TECHNICIAN

Job Type: Full-Time Employment

Summary Overview: An Installation Technician installs various types of electronic equipment and systems. They typically work for corporations and travel to their customers' homes or place of business.

Essential Functions:

- Figure out the best place for the installation to be made
- Troubleshoot the process
- Install equipment

Education:

High School Diploma or equivalent; Degree in Information Technology or Engineering is preferred.

Day-to-Day Responsibilities:

- Traveling to customers' homes or place of business.
- Installing electrical or computer equipment such as flat-screen televisions, projectors, routers, desktop computers, laptops, and tablets.
- Suggesting areas where equipment should be set up and where cords should be placed.
- Troubleshooting problems with existing equipment.
- Testing old and new installation connections.
- Providing customers with verbal and written operating instructions for new equipment.
- Maintaining equipment.
- Cleaning up after the job is complete.
- Recording and maintaining stock levels.
- Maintaining the work vehicle.

Skills:

- Excellent communication skills.
- Ability to climb ladders.
- Ability to crouch, kneel and work in confined areas for extended periods.
- Ability to lift heavy objects.
- Advanced knowledge of modern electrical equipment.
- Ability to solve problems and repair equipment on site.